BANDAGED THE BABY

How an Italian Mother Treated
Her Child.

IT IS THE CUSTOM OF ITALY

But the Humane Society Will See That It Does Not Become Popular In This Vicinity—The Peculiar Discovery Made by Trustee Albright—The Child Is Now Very Ill.

Township Trustee Albright made a discovery yesterday afternoon which will give the Humane society something to do, and at the same time convinces him that sunny Italy is not the best place in the world for babies.

The trustee had occasion to call at a house in Wellsville yesterday afternoon, and while he was there a woman carrying a child in her arms entered the room. The frightful look of pain upon the worn features of the little one caused the gentleman to inquire the nature of the ailment from which it suffered. Evidently the woman was unable to understand the question, but another woman in the room explained that she was an Italian, knowing nothing of the English language, and that the child was being slowly killed by what the mother said was a custom in their land. The little one, not more than three months old, had been wrapped in bandages a few hours after its birth and kept in that condition until a few weeks ago, when the rags were taken off. The bandages were wound about the child from its neck to its waist, holding the arms tight against the sides and preventing any movement except those of the lower limbs. After this system had almost killed the babe, and the time required by the custom was over, the mother had removed the rags and wound them about the legs, both limbs being bound together as well as an earnest belief in the custom and a pair of strong arms could perform the task. This rendered the child helpless, and was rapidly deforming the limbs, so that it would be a cripple for the remainder of its days. In addition to this, the child had been covered with a sort of ointment or soap, evidently some preparation used by these people to prevent disease, and the result could be seen in great sores and eruptions, which appeared all over that part of the body and limbs not covered by the bandage.

The sight was sickening in the extreme, and caused the trustee to wonder why the child had not long since died or become so loathsome that it could no longer be endured by the cruel parents who would practice such an outrageous and cruel custom. Mr.
Albright attempted to explain to the woman that she was violating the law, but she could not understand what he said, and he was compelled to go away, leaving the child in the condition in which he found it. To a reporter he described the scene as nothing short of sickening, and expressed the belief that the child would die if it was not attended to at once. The Wellsville agent of the society will be instructed to call upon the mother in company with an interpreter today, and order the release of the youngster from its strange confinement. If this order is not complied with at once, the society will take the case in hand, remove the bandages, and prosecute the parents.

Some Horse Cases.

Two old horses have been reported to the officials within the last few days, but nothing has been done with them as yet. Both, however, will be cared for before the week is out, and if the owners do not give them a decent equine burial, there will be a few more arrests, and the exchequer of the society will be increased by some fines.

A Wellsville man, who is in the habit of coming to this city with his horse will likely find himself behind the bars in a few days. He ties his horse in some part of the city, and leaving the poor beast to get along as best it can, spends the day around the saloons. Officials of the Humane society say that they will prosecute the fellow under a city ordinance, and see that he refrains from such cruelty in the future. Another man, a farmer, had done the same thing on several occasions, notably one day this week, and the agents are waiting to catch him and see that he gets a dose of the same medicine.

A curious complaint before the society is that of some residents of Wucherer's addition, who claim that a dog is being kept in confinement by one of their neighbors. The poor beast is half starved, and its howls, caused by hunger, have become such a nuisance that the people want it abated. It is said that when approached regarding the matter the owner protested that the dog had been fed twice on Sunday, and could not understand why that was not sufficient nourishment for one week at least.

THAT STEAMBOAT STRIKE.

Liverpool Men Staid at Work—River
News.

The work of transferring the cargoes on the grounded barges at Line Island is at an end, and the strike is consequently over.

The strike occurred when the work was almost done, nothing but some barb wire remaining on the barges.
There were no tongs to handle the wire and when 10 pairs arrived from Pittsburg there were too many men to handle them.
Several of the crew quit and came to this city, and upon returning asked 40 cents per hour. The owners of the boat did not seem anxious to hurry the work, so it was finished at the old rate, 25 cents per hour, by Georgetown and East Liverpool men. The men from this city were making better money than if they had been working at home, and consequently refused to join the strikers.

The new steamer, C. C. Martin, made her first trip from Steubenville to this city today with a fair trip, and took on a small shipment of freight.
Wharfman Pilgrim anticipates a good business for the boat.

The Hudson had a big trip down last night, and took on 50 casks of ware here.

The Bedford and Iron Queen are due up tonight and the Ben Hur down for Parkersburg.

Preparing for Work.

The exclusive announcement in the News Review last evening that the bridge company would begin work not later than Saturday of this week, caused a sensation in the city, and made the heart of many a man out of employment leap with joy. The officers of the company are busy today preparing for the beginning of work, and expect to have everything ready at the appointed time.

Only a few men will be employed at the commencement of the work, and they will be in charge of Cross Kerr.

Failed to Decide.

A large number of persons attended the congregational meeting at the First Presbyterian church last evening, but no conclusion regarding the construction of galleries was reached.
The fear is that as the building was never intended for this purpose the architect will not permit it. Another meeting has been called for next Wednesday evening when it is hoped the troublesome question will be decided. A number of plans for the enlargement of the seating space have been suggested.

Prevented an Accident.

The new fence on the river bank near the power house prevented an accident similar to the one in which Milkman Andrews suffered not long ago. A delivery wagon was being driven along the road when the horse lost its head, and backed the wagon with such force against the fence as to test the staying qualities of both.
Had the bank been unprotected some grocery store would need a new wagon and a doctor would have a new case.

Racing on a Train.

When a freight train was going through the city this morning persons along the track saw Edward Sanders, a colored man, running along the cars, with Detective Meehan chasing him as fast as his legs could travel. Sanders has been wanted for some time for jumping trains, and the detective has been after him on several occasions. When Sanders boarded the train this morning Meehan was soon after him.

Improvements on the River.

Rivermen are deeply interested in the proposed improvements on the river, and are working to have congress appropriate money for the needed dams between Pittsburg and Wheeling. Colonel Stickney, who has charge of the river, is anxious to have the work go on, and wants congress to appropriate a given sum each year.
Senator Quay is also in fighting array, and will likely take an active part.

It Is Getting Lower.

The river is falling today, but so slowly that it can scarcely be noticed.
The heavy fog which hung over the valley last night and this morning was a source of annoyance to rivermen, and all the packets were behind time, some being compelled to tie up until the pilots could see their way clear to proceed. The boats are all carrying good trips.

Mrs. Taylor Is Better.

The many friends of Mrs. Will L.
Taylor will be delighted to learn that the lady is very much better today, and it is now expected that she will recover.

CHILDREN WHO WORK

Will Be Investigated by Trades Council.

THE BIG PARADE IN PITTSBURG

Will Likely Be Increased by a Large Force From East Liverpool—If Burns and Gompers Will Not Be Here, Potters Will Go to Them.

At the meeting of Trades council last evening the employment of children in the potteries was discussed and suggestions made to bring about a better observance of the law.

Charges have been frequently been made relating to this subject, but there has never been an investigation because it was generally conceded that if parents permitted children of tender years to go to work it was not impossible for them to find a place in some of the potteries. After discussing the aim of the law it was decided by the council to notify the commissioner of labor, and have him put an end to the practice by a complete investigation.

The matter of attending the labor demonstration in Pittsburg next week was broached, and an attempt will be made to have Messrs Burns and Gompers come to this place for one evening. If this object cannot be attained it is likely that the council will move on Pittsburg with as many potters and other workmen in the party as can be gotten together, and make a showing in the big parade that will cause the general public to know what an industry there is in East Liverpool.

WANT LAND.

Wellsville People In Court—Other Cases
at Lisbon.

LISBON, Dec. 20—All property owners in Mary Wells addition, Wells-ville, petitioned court today to appropriate an alley and lot 12, appropriated for public purposes. They claim it is for the interest of all residents.

In the Salineville school case the owner of the condemned property was awarded $2,450 by Judge Young.
Hon. William Monaghan asked the court to set aside the sale of the Hostetter House, claiming that the price, $11,800, is too low. He is a part owner of the hotel and offers to buy it in an advance of 10 per cent on these figures. The motion was argued before Judge Taylor, of Carrollton, and continued until January 21.

She Pleaded.

A married man of this city, who is not known as a loving and dutiful husband, was making the rounds the other evening with a notorious damsel when his wife appeared on the scene.
There was not the usual sight, but instead the woman pleaded with her husband in a manner that made those who saw it feel like raising him on the toes of their boots. The man was just drunk enough to be silly and laughing at his wife turned to his companion and staggered toward a convenient saloon. The wife was advised to have him arrested.

Returned in Taxes.

A member of the board of health said last evening that while he is perfectly willing to see council investigate the methods employed in keeping the city free from disease, he thought every councilman should remember that much of the money, paid in bills for the board, is assessed against the property of the people who compel severe measures and is returned to the city in taxes. Thus the city really spends nothing and only lends the money to the board for a short time.

Frank Carpenter's Story.

Frank Carpenter told the story of Korea to a large audience at the Grand last night, and illustrated his utterances with the best stereopticon views ever seen in the city. Mr. Carpenter talks in that easy conversational tone so well adapted to the narrator, forgetting oratory and eloquence in the strong desire to amuse and instruct. Every phase of life in the Orient was touched by the traveler and not a point worthy of notice in his brief talk was omitted.

Their Own Risk.

Commissioner Welch today ordered two board signs bearing the words "walking on this walk is at your own risk" placed on the new fence at the power house. The planks are not intended for use as a path and neither city nor street railway will be responsible for accidents.

Will He Be Whipped?

A correspondent, who fails to sign her name, writes to the News Review that some one has been having statements published which reflect upon her, and which are untrue. She says that she knows the name of the responsible party, and that she will horsewhip him if 25 years must pass before the opportunity is presented.

He is fooling with the wrong person, she says, and she will have the last and best laugh.

How the Money Goes.

In speaking of the differences between the board of health and council J. J. Purinton brought in the police department this morning by the assertion that while it cost the board but $27 to keep six persons 30 days it cost the city $20 to keep Caroline Smith 56 days. He also said that they had no fear of the outcome of the Chambers case since there were other city officials who had bills before council every meeting night and claims committee always paid them.

An Interesting Illustration.

In his lecture last evening Frank Carpenter cited one truth which shows how the Japanese could work havoce to the pottery trade in this country as they sell a teapot of tea and a cup for what in our money is a cent and a half. The same ware here, not counting the tea, is never sold at 60 off for less than 25 cents, and that in ware known as run of kiln, the cheapest made in town. What can be the Japanese wages with ware at that price?

Seventh Day Adventists.

A Michigan minister was in the vicinity of West Point this week preaching the doctrines of the Seventh Day adventists. He afterward came to this city where there are a number of people of the same faith. At one time regular meetings were held, and it is proposed to continue the custom if a sufficient number of persons can be gathered together.

Should Watch the Blinds.

People compelled to walk along Fifth street complain that the residents of one house should pull down the blinds at night. Instances are cited of scenes which do not tend to elevate the morals of a community, and which are viewed by children who gather in the street attracted by the strange view. Carelessness becomes criminal in such cases.

Hard Luck For Mr. Quick.

Mr. Quick, who was so unfortunate as to break his leg on Washington street a few days before opening a grocery store on Fifth street, had so far recovered this week as to be ready to make another start when he was taken ill, and is now confined to his room. The gentleman really seems to have more than his share of adverse circumstances.

A Fine Gateway.

Two massive blocks of stone were being planted today in front of the new high school building where they will rest for many years as gate posts.
They will be handsomely carved, and will support a substantial gate of pretty design. The building will be surrounded by an iron fence not so high but that the lawn can be seen from the street.

And This Is Enterprise.

The East Liverpool Crisis deliberately steals the Review's report of the Biren-Vollongle affair at Colum-biana, and publishes it as a "special to the Crisis." As it has often done this same thing we suppose it is the sort of "newspaper enterprise" of which the publishers of the Crisis almost constantly boast.—Alliance Review.

A Prospective Lodge.

The Macabees, contemplating starting a tent of the order in East End early next year, and the representatives here are looking over the field with that view. The Macabees expect to send two delegates to the grand session in Cleveland, representing a vote of 300 members, from East Liverpool.

Five Years Old.

The Daughters of America will be five years old when Jan. 19, arrives, and they propose to celebrate the occasion by an entertainment in the most approved form. The program will be a collection of unique events in which many members of the order will take part.

Still at Work.

Workmen have again started on improvements at city hall, the painter's brush now being used freely. The mayor's and marshal's new offices will be as cozy as can be desired when furnished.

MARRIED IN NEW YORK

A Notable Wedding Yesterday Evening.

MRS. IDA KNOWLES THE BRIDE

And Miles Aloysius Stafford Was the Happy Groom—A Fashionable Affair in Which a Former Resident of This Place Took a Prominent Part.

A special from New York contains the following:

"Mrs. Ida Stockdale Knowles, the widow of the late Homer Knowles, of Liverpool, O., one of the wealthiest pottery manufacturers in the world, was united in marriage this evening to Miles Aloysius Stafford, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph B. Kerr, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, at the residence of the bride on West End avenue. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present. George W. Place, of this city, acted as best man. There were no bridesmaids. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stafford departed on an extended tour through the South. Among the presents, which were numerous and costly, was a deed for a block of apartment houses, the gift of Mr. Stafford to his bride. Mrs. Knowles, now Mrs. Stafford, was born in Pittsburg, Pa., where she is well known. Mr. Stafford is well known in this city. He has retired from business and is of independent means. He is a member of many prominent clubs in this city.
He is a widower, and has a married daughter residing in Boston."

Another account of the wedding says that the bride was given away by her nine-year-old son, Master Harold Knowles, and continues:

"The bride, who is petite and a very pretty blonde, wore a frock of heliotrope velvet, trimmed with pearls and point lace, and carried a bunch of orchids. Her going-away gown is of blue cloth, trimmed with Persian lamb. She will also wear an Eton jacket of Persian lamb and sealskin."

Mrs. Stafford will be well remembered by the great majority of people in this city who knew her when, with her family, she resided here.

Accidents on Boardwalks.

Persons who are interested are complaining loudly of the condition of the boardwalk along the Calcutta road, a number of slight accidents having recently occurred. In spite of the truth that some parts of it have been repaired, there are still some sections that would disgrace one of the mining towns of the West. Council has already acted on the matter, and there will be a shaking up some day that will mean new and better walks for the city.

Apply It at Home.

The Bellare Tribune states the position of East Liverpool to Colum-biana county very clearly in the following:

"There is a good deal of nonsensical talk about Ohio having her county seats at the geographical center of the counties. The proper place for a county seat is near the center of business population, and not the center of territory."

Pioneer Case Next Week.

Attorney Grosshans, who is looking after the Pioneer pottery case, said today that the case would be resumed next week. Professor Fowler will take he books and make a complete examination of the accounts in question, and will finish the task as soon as possible. But he has a long job on hand, which will require weeks to complete.

He Must Move.

In Squire Rose's court this morning the case of Fred Wilson against Andrew Rattray was settled by the court ordering the defendant to give up the property.

The case of Davidson against Groves and McFarland was settled out of court and suit was withdrawn.

A New Silt Factory.

The man who proposes to erect a silt factory at Aikeville, a small town near Empire, was here today looking after the machinery and equipment for his plant. He has employed a couple of well-known silt makers in the city to help him in the task.

Settled the Claim.

George H. Owen went to Smith's Ferry today carrying in his pocket 2,000 which was turned over to Mrs.
Sarah Dawson as the insurance on the life of her son, the late Will Dawson.

An Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. Will L. Thompson entertained a great many of her lady friends in her handsome home in Thompson place this afternoon.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, DEC. 20.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

THE inordinate use of adjectives to explain the financial position of the Democratic party excites even the devotion of the unsophisticated Populists of Kansas.

EVEN the Democrats are beginning to fear Carlisle and his wild cat bank scheme. They have not yet forgotten the days before the war, when paper money was worth no more than paper bags.

THE REPUBLICAN PROGRAM.

Some one asked Senator Lodge the other day what the Republicans intended to do in the next congress, and he is credited with the following bit of characteristic good sense:

"Let me repeat what I said on this point during the campaign. We have got control of the house of representatives, and that is all we have got for the next two years. The senate will be evenly divided; the president will be Democratic. We shall prevent any more assaults on our industries, any more juggling with our finances, any more crazy legislation by the Democratic party during that period. So far as in us lies we shall keep things steady and try to give business a chance. That is all we can do and that is all we propose to undertake.
There are some people who either now or later will invite us to present sample tariff or sample currency bills.
In such nonsense as that I hope, and believe the Republican party will not indulge. We are not going to be the responsible party in power before the 4th of March 1897. It would be unwise and wrong in my own opinion to occupy our time in the next congress by presenting sample bills on this subject or on that, or by passing acts designed merely to put the other party in the hole, none of which could become a law and the discussion of which would only agitate and injure our business and industrial interests. If sudden exigencies should arise during the next year the Republicans may be relieved to meet them in a broad spirit and to subject partisanship to patriotism, as they did when they brought about the repeal of the purchasing clause of the silver act. But unless these unforeseen exigencies arise, and there seems no reason to look for them, the duty of the Republican party in the next congress will be substantially to pass appropriation bills, prevent mischievous legislation and agitating debates, and then go to the people and ask them for the complete power which alone will enable us to pass any positive measures."

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J.
Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract:
"I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe.
Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free

MAY LEAVE THE K. OF L.

A Number of Districts Expected to Join the Federation.

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 20.—The election of John McBride to the presidency of the American Federation of Labor has caused considerable stir among the local labor men. Members of the Knights of Labor here are not satisfied with the treatment they have received from the present administration of the order.

It is thought that President Mc-Bride's district, which was disfranchised at the last meeting of the general assembly, with all others who were treated in like manner, will go over in a body to the American Federation of Labor.

The Military Branch Dissolved.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The national guards, the military order of the Sons of Veterans, has been dissolved here after a 3-hour lively discussion in secret session. General H. S. Buckland of Fremont, O., the head of the military order, was absent but representatives were present from the greater number of the states. The dissolution was expected after the recent encampment at Davenport, when a resolution was exposed directing the disbandment and the morning of the military branch into the civil branch of the organization.

An Ex-Sheriff's Big Shortage.

WHEELING, Dec. 20.—Ex-Sheriff Charles H. Miller of Berkeley county is short in his accounts with the state and county $21,000. The state's share of this is $9,000, and suit has been instituted at Charleston for the amount.
Miller was sheriff for four years, until 1892, and it has been generally believed that his official affairs were in good shape when his term expired. It now develops that he is in arrears. Mr.
Miller stands high in the community, and it is generally believed that his shortage is due to his inability to collect rather than to intent to defraud.

An Ohio Woman Married.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Ida Stockdale Knowles, the widow of the late Homer Stockdale of Liverpool, O., one of the wealthiest pottery manufacturers in the world, has been united in marriage to Miles Aloysius Stafford of this city.
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph B. Kerr, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, at the residence of the bride on West End avenue. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present.

Story of the Riot Co.-firmed.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The colonial office has received confirmation of the dispatch from New Orleans, announcing labor riot at Belize, British Honduras, and that a detachment of 150 soldiers has been dispatched from Jamaica to Belize in order to relieve the marines of the British gunboat Partridge and the British sloop Pelican, who were landed in order to protect the police force of town, who were at the mercy of the mob.

Not Seared by Cleveland's Threat.

MADRID, Dec. 20.—The feeling in political circles here now is that President Cleveland does not intend to raise the duty on sugar imported from Cuba into the United States or to make other reprisals in consequence of the Cuban duties on American flour. On Saturday Signor Gastres will introduce in the chamber of deputies a motion for posing the payment to the United States of the Mora claim.

Wanted in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Kid Waddell, a noted bunco sharp, has been lodged in the Montgomery county jail at Fonda on the charge of being one of the men who swindled Mosh Weldon, a wealthy farmer of Mandan, Montgomery county, out of $4,800 on Aug. 16 last. He is wanted in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania on similar charges.

Serious Charge Against a Juror.

WHEELING, Dec. 20.—A profound sensation was caused in the circuit court by the filing of an affidavit that Charles N. Goff, a juror in the $10,000 damage case of Edward Newton, Jr., vs. the Electric Railway company, had solicited a bribe from Superintendent Loftus of the company. The jury was at once dismissed, the case continued and Goff given into custody for a hearing today.

A U. S. Consul Dead.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 20.—Theodore Huston, United States consul at Juarez, Mexico, has died at the American con-sulate at Juarez of consumption. He was about 42 years old. Mr. Huston formerly lived at Macomb, Ill., and was appointed consul at Juarez by President Cleveland about 16 months ago.

FATHER KUHN SIGNS.

However, He Don't Consider the Massillon Arbitration Decision Fair.

MASSILLON, O., Dec. 20.—Father Kuhn has finally given in and has attached his signature to the report of the arbitration committee in the dispute between the coalminers and operators.

He said, however, that he could not agree to the decision. The board presents a unanimous report, abolishing the heretofore existing differential of 15 cents, and placing the Massillon district on the same basis as the Hocking Valley. It is declared that the operators have proven their ability to obtain men to man the mine for 60 cents; that there is no reason why the screens here should be smaller than elsewhere; that the high price has excluded Massillon coal from the lake trade; that, being harder, the coal has a greater percentage of lump, and that it is no more difficult, all things considered, to mine Massillon coal than any other.

The verdict has created the greatest excitement at Massillon and there is a great disappointment to the miners who confidently expected at least 65 cents, as they had been offered that price as a compromise before the submission of the question of the board of arbitration.

In speaking of the work of the committee, Father Kuhn said: "I held out for the miners as long as I could, and I advanced every claim I honorably could, but there was no question that the operators had presented a case accompanied by more accumulative evidence.
The operators came forth with affidavits by the hundred. They met every point that had been or could be raised, and when the miners presented the arguments the operators were equally diligent in rebuttal. Not so the miners.
After preparing their evidence in chief they brought in no rebuttal evidence, leaving supported only by the evidence in chief positions that I feel confident might have been fortified. Therefore, as I say, the operators came to us with a case that was propped up at every corner, and in the face of the evidence the other two judges decided the cases which I have signed under protest."

The other arbitrators were Judge Plandin and W. S. Keramics.

Banker Sauer Found Guilty.

DEFIANCE, O., Dec. 20.—After being out six hours the jury in the case of the state of Ohio vs. Andrew Sauer, charged with perjury, brought in a verdict of guilty. Mr. Sauer's attorneys will file a motion for a new trial as a preliminary step towards taking the case to circuit court. There are few men in Northwestern Ohio better known than Andrew Sauer. Besides being cashier of the Defiance Savings bank which collapsed over a year ago, he was deputy collector for this revenue district. The charge of perjury was based on an alleged false return of the bank's condition.

The Epidemic Under Control.

ASHTABULA, O., Dec. 20.—The epidemic of malignant diphtheria which raged here so fatally during last week has been brought under control. Several apparently hopeless cases were treated with the anti-toxine remedy and the result was very gratifying. Out of half a dozen cases treated with the new remedy all but one are recovering. So far there have been 79 cases and 16 deaths.

The Ticket Scalpers Excited.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 20.—The ticket scalpers of this city are greatly wrought up over the action of the Lake Shore road in confiscating mileage books presented by others than to whom the books were issued. Legal advice will be sought with a view to recovering such books. The brokers dispute the legal right of the railroad company to take up the books, as long as they have been paid for.

An Ohio Attorney Barred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—William A.
Phelps, a partner in the law firm of Richmond, Ohio, has been disbarred from practice before the interior department for unprofessional conduct. He was charged with knowingly filing a claim of a divorce woman and withholding the fact of the divorce. The pension was allowed by the bureau and the fee collected by the attorney.

Requisition For Harris Honored.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 20.—Detective Reil-ley, who came here from New York to get W. H. Harris, the scheme promoter, has received a telegram from Governor McKinley that the governor of New York has filed the proper requisition papers and that he had honored them.
Harris will be taken back to New York immediately.

Incorporated in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 20.—The following articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state: Country Club Land company, Columbus, capital stock $15,000; Fairmont cadets, Cincinnati; Dayton Blank Book and Printing company, Dayton, capital stock $75,000; Baker Manufacturing company, Canton, capital stock $5,000.

A Wife Murderer to Sentenced.

URBANA, O., Dec. 20.—Edward Rose, the wife murderer, has been found guilty of murder in the second degree and was immediately sentenced for life. Rose killed his wife Sunday, July 22. He induced her to walk to the woods and then shot her.

Drafted a Toledo Player.

TOLEDO, Dec. 20.—A special from Louisville says that the Louisville National League club has drafted Third Baseman Tatfield, who Manager Long had already signed for Toledo. Pitcher Petty has signed a Toledo contract.

Both Probably Fatally Burned.

ELYRIA, O., Dec. 20.—The dwelling house of C. J. Cook has been almost totally destroyed by fire. In their efforts to extinguish the flames both Mr. and Mrs. Cook were probably fatally burned.
The origin of the fire is unknown.

A Drygoods Dealer Fails.

DAYTON, O., Dec. 20.—Ed Bauer's drygoods store has been closed by the sheriff on confessed judgments in favor of Dayton creditors, in the sum of $23,- 600, which represents about half his indebtedness.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print as a specimen of a paper from the eye with ease and comfort, and will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. If the eye become tired from reading or from the strain of looking at the paper, it is a sure indication that the glasses are needed. The most perfect in the cheap grade are of equal quality and have perfectly formed surfaces. One of these glasses will neutralize the strain from the most extreme eyes, upon the basis of accommodation to supply the defects in the eye."

A WONDERFUL ORDER.

What the Knights of the Maccabees Do.
The wonderful growth of the Knights of the Maccabees is the subject of remark in the city, many names having been added to the membership since Mr. Burt came to town. The insurance features of the society make it an order of merit, and thousands of members owe it allegiance in different parts of the country. If you desire to protect your family, and can not afford to carry an expensive insurance, try what is offered by the Maccabees as it is the best and cheapest in the country. The social features of the order are second to none.

FOR THE WEARY FEET.

Some of the Evils of Tight Shoes and How to Cure Them.

A man who has made the human foot an object of research and study declares that short stockings are very nearly as injurious as short shoes. Hosiery of insufficient length press the knuckles of the toes upward, and when the shoe forces them down the natural result is a painful excrescence that vulgar folks designate as a corn.

"But surely you don't consider an ill fitting stocking the cause of bunions, do you?" I inquired.

"One of them," he replied. "Corns are the result of pressure. You see, the blood is forced from the sebaceous glands; therefore an excessive or unnatural quantity of oil is thrown off. This discolors the blood, and the oil forces its way to the surface of the toe. As it reaches the cuticle it evaporates, leaving a top layer hard. Layer upon layer of oil forms downward and deepens until it presses on the nerves. Corns have no roots. That idea is fallacious. But they cannot be cured until an instrument goes beneath all those layers of diseased oil and removes them. A soft corn is more easily treated and is largely the result of acid in the blood.

"After a corn has been removed find out literally where the shoe pinches, then bathe the foot in cold water every morning upon arising and rub the part with prepared chalk."

My informant added that for dry feet always use ice cold water; for moist feet inclined to perspire freely, the water as hot as the skin can stand it, and bathe just before retiring. If the feet swell after much walking, put a little vinegar in the hot water; if they ache, use a few drops of ammonia or borax.

Rest the feet often. To do this change the shoes as frequently as possible. Even from an old to a new shoe is a rest. The muscles of the foot tire of one position, no matter how easy the leather or last may be. Four or five times a day, if it is convenient, are none too often to take this trouble, and its benefits are astonishing.

Ingrowing nails are the result of the corners being cut too close, allowing the shoe to press against them. This again requires skilled treatment. The pedicure's patronage is becoming as extensive as that of the manicure, for, apart from the treatment of painful excrescences, beautifying the foot is greatly in vogue. Preparations to whiten the skin are in use, and all the art of the manicure is called upon to assist that of the pedicure. Some society women can now present as well kept feet as hand, the nails rounded and polished with equal daintiness. -New York Recorder.

The Sleep of Horses.

When the horse sleeps, it is said that one ear is directed forward, why is not known. A writer in The English Mechanic thinks this is to guard against danger, being a survival of their originally wild habits. He says: "Watch a horse asleep through the window of his stable and make a faint noise to the front. That ear will be all attention, and probably the other will fly round sharply to assist. Now let him go to sleep again and make the same noise to the left. The forward ear still will keep guard, with possibly a lightning flick round only to resume its former position."

HERB MEDICINE CO. SPRINGFIELD, O.

THE BUSINESS GIRL.

She Expresses Her Opinion of Men, Matrimony and Money.

The social philosopher had been petting her chin in an absurdly hayseedish manner, and as the thoughtful panorama was ominously regarded as a forerunner of a more or less prolonged lecture she didn't dare disappoint her admiring petticoated audience. So she said:

"It seems to me that the very moment that a young woman shows ability in any chosen profession about 500 ordinarily charming and lovely individuals rise up like solicitous hens over a weak legged chicken and implore her not to spoil her good work by tumbling into the matrimonial tank."

"Huh!" puffed the girl who always interrupts, "the motherly hens had better wait until she gets a good chance. Then they'll see how quickly 'Yes, sir, I'm yours,' could be said."

"What nonsense!" the social philosopher deigned to answer. "Every girl has opportunities to marry, but no girl in her right mind is going to blindfold herself to the dozens of things to be considered. There's the money question, for instance. That always comes first, for if you are a business woman, earning a fairly decent salary, it is absurd to marry a man who receives but little more. Diamond tastes and window glass purses make a mighty unsatisfactory combination, my dear. Besides perhaps you are fond of your work and dislike household managing, but if you go down to business every day people will look wise and say mean things, and you'll wish yourself unhooked from your matrimonial venture."

"Perfect men are so hard to find too! Now, what girl could endure a bald head or a red nose, even if it went with loads of wealth and bushels of love? Why, in less than six weeks she'd be making the poor man wear a frilled cap and a prepared chalk nose. A man's good looks go a long way with a girl. I'm ashamed to confess, and a jerky manner of talking, or a sissy walk, or a nervous movement of the hands will make a girl's teeth grind and her temper fray at the edges-that is, unless she's really and truly in love. Then he might be a tailor's dummy, noseless and cross eyed, bewhiskered and with rouged cheeks, and she'll still think him the loveliest thing on earth." -Chicago Record.

Mimicry of the Spider.

A southern man gives the following account of his discovery of a chameleon spider: "One afternoon, while tramping along a dusty road, I noticed in the bushes which grew along the side what appeared to be a singular looking white flower, with a blue center. Stopping to examine it, I found to my astonishment that it was not a flower at all, but a spider's web, and that the supposed light blue heart of the flower was the spider itself, lying in wait for its prey. The mottled brown legs of the spider were extended in such a way as to resemble the divisions between the petals of a flower."

"The web itself, very delicately woven into a rosette pattern, was white, and the threads that suspended it from the bushes were so fine as to be almost invisible. The whole thing had the appearance of being suspended in the air upon a stem concealed beneath. Upon knocking the spider from his perch into the white gauze net which I carried my surprise was greatly increased upon seeing my captive instantly turn in color from blue to white. I shook the net, and again the spider changed color, this time its body becoming a dull greenish brown. As often as I would shake the net just so often would the spider change its color, and I kept it up until I had assumed about every hue of the rainbow." -Philadelphia Ledger.

How to Read.

We cannot too strongly impress every daughter with the fact that habits of reading are wonderfully powerful. Early learn to read only good books, and read them critically and thoughtfully. The purpose for which we read a book must not be mere pleasure. We must aim to obtain and retain the author's thought and meaning. Few good books do not have some particular question upon which they dwell strongly. A few well directed questions from father, mother or brother will help to bring this to light, and in addition will enforce the fact that an opinion of one's own is of more value than a dozen that were begged, borrowed or stolen from some eminent man or woman. Many people regret that they were not early taught to consider the author's name a portion of the title of his book and are continually remarking, "Oh, I can't remember who wrote that book." -Milwaukee Wisconsin.

She Rides a Wheel.

Queen Marguerite of Italy has yielded to the prevailing cyclomania. She rides two hours every day in the garden of the Quirinal and professes to be greatly enamored of the sport. Since the queen began to ride the wheel she has improved wonderfully in health, having acquired a hearty appetite that she never had before and being enabled to perform her pressing social duties with comparative ease.

8. We can print anything from a visiting card to a 3-sheet poster.
9. Our prices are as low as those paid other offices for inferior work.
10. Because a trial job of printing always makes the patron a regular customer.

One Thing is Certain

Big fortunes everywhere accompany the efforts of big advertisers. These people began in a small way, but they kept everlastingly at it, told what they had to tell in bright, clear terms
